

Wallace took by G.S. Wallace p. 17

Bath county, Wallaces
Thomas Wallace who was born in Scotland, came, along with his wife to Virginia in 1790 and settled on the Van Pasture River, near Green River. One of his descendants, George W. Wallace, lives on this plantation of Thomas Wallace was Gen. William E.L. Wallace, a brevet brigadier-general in the Union Army, who was killed in the battle of Shiloh.
A second grandson, Martin H.L. Wallace, was likewise a brevet brigadier-general in the Union Army.
For a more detailed account of these two men, see "A History of Thomas H.L. Wallace." by Isabel Wallace.
Nation's High. Co., Va., p. 371.

Wallace
Thomas (w Sarah) came from Del. before 1790 and settled on CP, near Williamsville - D. 1799. His son, Nathan (b. 1772, m. Sarah Burns, his ancestor of the Wallaces of Bath.

Nathan's Bath, p. 202

Thomas Wallace came from Delaware in 1781, purchased the upper part of the McGreevey homestead, and died in 1799. His children were:
James, David, Josiah, John, Benjamin, Joseph, Thomas, Polly, and
Mary. Nathan born in 1772, is the ancestor of the Wallaces of Bath.
Thomas H.L. Wallace, killed in the battle of Shiloh in 1862, sprang from another branch.

State's Aile., Co., Va.

William H.L. Wallace of Illinois was a brother to William E.L. Wallace and like him was a brevet brigadier general in the Union Army. These latter were of the Wallace family that settled on the Compasture about below Williamsville. General W.H.L. Wallace, who was killed in the battle of Shiloh, also served in the war with Mexico. He married a daughter of R. Lyle Pickney, a justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois, and of Augusta county court.

State's Poca., Co., Va., p. 129

William H.L. Wallace married Benjamin Wallace, of Bath county, Va.
His wife, an eminent physician at Mill Point, later deceased, was her son. Her daughter, Rachel, became Mrs. William Herner, a prominent citizen of Spaxton county. Her other daughter, Elizabeth, married Christopher Jordan

State's Poca., Co., Va., p. 129

William H.L. Wallace - 1772-1862 m. Hannah McNeal - 1772-1862
m. Mill Point, Co., Va.

William H.L. Wallace - 1772-1862 m. Hannah Ann McNeal 1772-1862
m. Mill Point, Co., Va. m. Mary Lucie - John Union